

At the end of the lesson, the student will be able to:
*confidently share his/her summer plans with the teacher.

Dialogue

A: Hello, good morning Jane. Summer is coming. So what's your plan?

B: I'm not sure but my parents plan to go to Europe for a month.

A: 1That's great! I always want to go to Europe.

B: How about you? 2What do you plan to do this summer?

A: Well, I need to earn money for the next semester. Maybe I have to get a part-time job down the coffee shop.

B: That's also very interesting! I tried it once last semester.

A: I think so too. But I wish to travel to some other countries.

B: I know you will have your time someday.

A: You're right. 3Have a good time in Europe

B: You too. 3Enjoy your vacation

Useful Expressions

1. That's cool!
Oh, that's very interesting!
2. Do you have any plans this summer?
What are you going to do this summer?
3. Have a good trip.
Enjoy your vacation.
Have a good time in (destination)

Activity

* Complete the conversation by filling in the gap with the possible expression

1. A: Hey Mike! What do you plan this summer?
B: I plan to learn driving.
A: _____!
2. A: Liza, we are going to the beach! Are you coming with us?
B: I'd love to but I can't. I have my part-time job.
A: Really? Oh, too bad.
B: _____!
A: Thank you!
3. A: Hi dad. Class is almost over. _____.
B: What do you want to do?
A: I want to get a scuba diving license.
B: _____! We'd better go together with the Smith's.