

Lesson 80

Here are some more irregular verb forms.

the present	the past	the past participle
hear	heard [hɜ:d]	heard [hɜ:d]
leave	left [left]	left [left]
make	made [meɪd]	made [meɪd]
mean	meant [ment]	meant [ment]
smell	smelt [smelt]	smelt [smelt]

What are the verb forms of 'hear'?

The verb forms of 'hear' are 'hear, heard, heard'.

Have you heard the news about a new teacher in the school?

Yes, I've heard the news about a new teacher in the school.
or: No, I haven't heard the news about ...

What are the verb forms of 'leave'?

The verb forms of 'leave' are 'leave, left, left'.

Have they left this room?

No, they haven't left this room.

What are the verb forms of 'make'?

The verb forms of 'make' are 'make, made, made'.

Have you made a mistake this lesson?

Yes, I have made a mistake this lesson.
or: No, I haven't made a mistake ...

What are the verb forms of 'mean'?

The verb forms of 'mean' are 'mean, meant, meant'.

We learnt the word 'happen'.
What did the word mean?

The word 'happen' meant '...'.

What are the verb forms of 'smell'?

The verb forms of 'smell' are 'smell, smelt, smelt'.

Did your dinner smell good yesterday?

Yes, my dinner smelt good yesterday.
or: No, my dinner didn't smell good yesterday, but it smelt bad.