

Discussion Questions

Topic Talk

1. Define the following words: treat, minor, guardian
2. What are some things Saudi women cannot do without the permission their male guardian?
3. What do the words 'middle ground' mean in the article?
4. Why do some Saudis refuse to change their guardianship laws?
5. What law does the country plan to implement that will change the status of women for the better?

Express Your Thoughts

1. What do you think of the plans of Saudi Arabia to change their guardianship laws?
2. Do you think it's ever fair to apply guardianship laws to women in the society?
3. Does gender discrimination exist in your country? Give examples.
4. Gender equality varies differently among cultures. Is it possible to create standard rules to avoid conflicting views? Explain.
5. If you were to change one law in your country, what would it be and why?