

Passport Control In Immigration

(Jun faces immigration officer)

Jun: Hello

Customs Official: Hello can I have your passport, please?

Jun: Here you go.

Customs Official: Can you tell me your address in Hong Kong?

Jun: I'll be staying at Metro Park Hotel in Central.

Custom Officer: Where's your visa?

Jun: My visa? It's in my passport.

Custom Officer: Ah yes, here it is. You're on a business visa. What will your job be?

Jun : I'll be visiting Kowloon Company for three to six days.

Custom Official: Have you been to Hong Kong before?

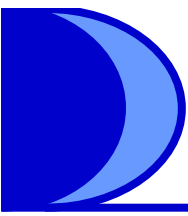

Jun: No, this is my first time.

Custom: Do you have any friends and family here.

Jun: Friends.

Custom: Well, welcome to Hong Kong Mr. Honda.

Jun: Thank you.

Passport Control In Immigration

Useful Expressions:

1. Hello can I have your passport, please? - Asking you to give/hand in the passport.

Response: Here it is./ Here you go.

= You hand in the passport.

2. Can you tell me your address in Hong Kong? - Asking where will you stay/live

Response: I'll be staying/living at_____.

= Tell your complete address

3. Where's your visa? - Asking about your visa. Visa is usually posted on the passport. It looks like a stamp or a piece of paper

Response: It's in my passport.

4. What will your job be?-Asking about your purpose. You may have any of these business, study, travel.

Response: I'm here for business/study/travel for _____days (tell how long)

Real World Experience:

Your teacher will be the immigration officer and you are the traveler. Be prepare to give the correct response of the questions.