

By the end of the lesson, the student will be able to:

* tell the reason behind time differences in countries and share an experience similar to the dialogue presented.

Dialogue

A: Hello?

B: Hi, Deborah! This is John. I'm calling from Australia.

A: What are you doing in Australia?

B: I'm attending a conference in Sydney this week, remember?

A: Oh, right. What time is it there?

B: It's 10:00 P.M. And it's four o'clock in Los Angeles, right?

A: Yes - four o'clock in the morning.

B: 4:00 A.M.? I'm really sorry.

A: That's OK. I'm awake now.

Let's Talk

1. What time is it in your country now?
2. Do you have a similar experience as Deborah / John? If yes, tell me about it.
3. Do you know the reason behind time differences in countries?
4. In an event of being relocated to a country with a big time difference from your home country, how do you think you can cope with it? Explain your answer.
