

Dialogue

A: Could you do me a favor?

B: Sure. What is it?

A: We need a few things from the market.

B: What do you want to have?

A: A can of tuna fish, a loaf of white bread and a head of lettuce.

B: A can of tuna fish, a loaf of white bread and a head of lettuce:
Anything else?

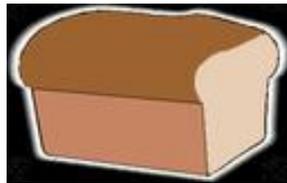

A: No, that's all. Thanks.

Phrases used to denote quantity of food

A can – milk, sardines,
tomato sauce

Loaf of bread

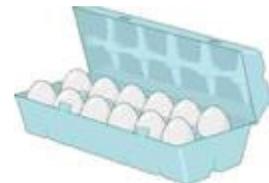

Head of lettuce

Gallon of milk, fruit
juice, water

Bunch of fruits
(grapes, banana)

A dozen (eggs, rolls Oranges, apple)

Fill it in.

1. I'd like a ____ of cookies. (dozen) (box)
2. We need a _____ eggs. (pound) (dozen)
3. I got a ____ of mayonnaise. (jar) (box)
4. Buy a ____ of milk. (dozen) (gallon)
5. Please don't forget to buy a ____ of bananas. (bunch) (head)

Practice Conversation

- 1) Ask your friend to buy you a dozen of oranges and a bunch of banana at the supermarket .
- 2) Tell your mother, you need half a dozen of eggs and one kilo of flour, to bake two dozens of cookies.