

Dialogue

A: Dad. Can I borrow the car tomorrow?

B: Why do you want to borrow the car?

A: I'm going to the beach with Tony.

B: Last time you borrowed it you had it smash-up and dented the door.

A: I promise I'll drive painstakingly this time.

B: And the petrol tank was almost empty.

A: I'll fill it up before I get home.

B: Well, OK then, provided you're home by 8. I'm going out tomorrow evening and I need the car.

A: Great. Thanks dad, I'll be home by 7:30.
