

At the end of the lesson, the student will be able to:
* interrupt someone using polite expressions.

Useful Expressions

When Interrupting

Excuse me for interrupting, but ____?

Pardon me, do you ____?

Excuse me, could you __?

Sorry to bother you, but could
you ____?

After Interrupting

Thank you.

Thanks. Sorry to bother you.

Thanks for helping.

Thanks. Sorry if I disturbed
you.

Thank you. Please continue. I didn't mean to interrupt.

Activity

*Interrupt two people and...

1. Ask them if they have time.
2. Ask them for directions to Shanghai Market.
3. Ask them which bus goes to Tokyo.
4. Find out if one of them is your old friend from elementary school.
5. Tell one of them that their jacket is lying on the floor.
6. Ask where you can find the bathroom.
7. Ask them if they have a change for one thousand yen.
8. Ask if they know when the next bus is coming.
9. Ask them if they know where you can find a good video room.