

Smith: I think of going to Mexico. I want to see my girlfriend.

Mark: But how about your job? Do you have to quit?

Smith: Yes, I can't stop thinking about her all day and all night.

Mark: It's up to you. I just remember that you dream about becoming a manager of this company.

Smith: I know I've dreamed of it since I started working here.

Mark: Haven't you heard from her?

Smith: I haven't for six months now.

Mark: Really? You haven't heard anything about her?
You gave her a ring, right?

Smith: Yes, I hope it will remind her of me.

Language Awareness: verb +preposition

Think of - the idea suddenly comes to your mind

Think about- needs time or concentration

Hear from- receive an e-mail, letter or call

Hear about- be told about something

Remind (smb) of- cause somebody to remember

Dream of/about- tell your future hopes and desires

Let's Do It:

Choose the correct preposition in the sentences below:

1. I think ___(of/about) your proposal. I can't make a decision yet.
2. That's a nice idea. Why I haven't thought (of/ about) it.
3. I heard (from/about) my mom. She called me yesterday.
4. Have you heard (about/of) what happened yesterday night?
5. This music reminds me (of/ about) the spring season in my country.