

Sue: Good morning Dr. Casidy.

Dr. Casidy: How are you?

Sue: I feel okay. It's just that I feel dizzy.

Dr. Casidy: No wonder! I have good news to tell you.
You're pregnant.

Sue: What? I'm pregnant? Uh...my cigarette.

Dr. Casidy: That's one thing I have to tell you. You can't smoke.

Sue: But I need cigarette to calm me down.

Dr. Casidy: You can't drink coffee. Caffeine is bad for your baby.
You have to quit drinking coffee.

Sue: What else is there?

Dr. Casidy: You need to get enough rest.

Sue: Oh. That's why nobody wants to be pregnant.

Dr. Casidy: This is for you and your baby.

Sue: Okay...

Language Awareness:

Phrases used in giving advice.

1. You've got to
2. You'd better...
3. He needs...
4. Don't let...
5. He's really got to...

Vocabulary Task: Completing Ideas

Connect the first part of this sentence with the second part.

- | | |
|---------------------------|---------------------------------------|
| A. Whenever he's stressed | A: two or three packs a day to relax. |
| He likes to smoke | B: the habit. |
| He's really got to kick | C: out, he has a few cigarettes. |

Interaction Link:

What advice can you give:

1. Your friend's performance in school is getting worse.
She feels bad about it and wants to do things better.
What advice can you give her?
2. When you entered the room, you saw your best friend holding a knife and crying. She wants to end her life because she has a lot of problems. Talk to her