

A: Okay. Mr. Smith. Let's begin your road test. You can start your car now.

B: Okay. Here we go.

A: Whoa! Take it easy. The speed limit here is only 25 miles an hour. Now, turn right at the next corner

B: This corner?

A: No, not here! Wow! You forgot your signal light.

B: Gosh. I didn't see that one.

A: Okay. Now, pull over here and show me that you can parallel park.

B: Parallel park? How do you do that?

A: Ah. Forget it. Just keep driving.

B: So, how am I doing? I'm just so excited about getting my license today.

A: Right. Now CAREFULLY turn right here, and wait, wait, WAIT!

STOP!! You almost hit that pedestrian. Get out! Get out! I'm driving back to the office.

B: Does this mean I didn't pass the test?

A: Could you do me a favor? When you come back to take the test again, plan on coming on Friday.

B: Again? Why? Is it less crowded that day?

A: No. It's my day off.

" Would you mind blowing into this bag air ? "

Vocabulary

Signal light

Parallel Park

Crowded

Response

1. When practicing for a road test, do you think it must be done in busy street? Why or Why not?
2. Why is it necessary to have a speed limit? Does it guarantee an accident free society?
3. If a car accident is done by a Sunday driver “someone who drives inexpertly”, is he/she liable? Why or Why not?

"Would you mind blowing into this bag air?"

Express Yourself

1. What are some basic rules of the road you need to know when taking a road test to obtain a driver's license in your country?
2. Do you think such rules are necessary?
3. At what age can people get driver's license in your country?